

Members of the Virginia Hunting Preserve Association will place you in contact with other knowledgeable growers and preserve operators statewide. By joining VHPA you will also receive the Association News, published by member Lyn Smith. The Journal is full of useful information on game bird raising and preserve operations. It draws on the expertise of nationally renowned veterinarians, professors, breeders, and preserve operators.

The Association monitors and influences legislation and Game & Inland Fisheries rules.

The Annual Membership fee is $40.00 and the Association is open to all growers and preserve operators in Virginia.
