Members of the Virginia Hunting Preserve Association will place you in contact with other knowledgeable growers and preserve operators statewide. By joining VHPA you will also receive the bimonthly Association News, published by member Lyn Smith. The Journal is full of useful information on game bird raising, game bird diseases, prevention and cures, and preserve operations. It draws on the expertise of nationally renowned veterinarians, professors, breeders, and preserve operators.

The Annual Membership fee is $30.00 and the Association is open to all growers and preserve operators in Virginia.
